BCH Development Chats rules (TL;DR), v2025.07.30.02

=====

0) Mods are relaxed and they treat you like human beings. If you misbehave you get a chance to correct yourself.

1) No inciting violence or murder.

2) No political discussion of any sort.

3) No referral links; no spam

4) No directly attacking of other people or using ad-hominem.

5) No discussing of non-BCH coins, except with relation to BCH in some way.

6) Only discussion of BCH development-related topics is allowed

7) High-effort, deep-thinking, open state of mind and "low noise"/"high signal" actions are suggested

For "known" or "legit" people [includes people known and having reputation in the BCH ecosystem]:

1) No inciting violence or murder. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp-banned for 90 days or more.

2) No political discussion of any sort. Accidental offense may be moved by mods to other channels or outright deleted. Repeated offenders, that do this despite being warned not to (3 times rule), will be temporarily muted or banned for 3-7 days so they have time to think deeply on their improper behavior.

3) No referral links; no spam, except if done as a part of some BCH development-related meme. Can be deleted on the spot. Repeated offenders, that do this despite being warned not to (3 times rule), will be temporarily muted or banned for 3-7 days so they have time to think deeply on their improper behavior.

4) No directly attacking of other people or using ad-hominem. [Examples: "You are stupid", "You are retarded", "Fuck you", "Your family must be retards"]. Only attacking the arguments of other people is allowed [Examples: "your argument is invalid", "this is a stupid argument, no offense"].

Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp banned or muted for 7-30 days.

5) No discussing of non-BCH coins, except with relation to BCH in some way. Accidental offense may be moved by mods to other channels or outright deleted. Repeated offenders, that do this despite being warned not to (3 times rule), will be temporarily muted or banned for 3-7 days so they have time to think deeply on their improper behavior.

6) Only discussion of BCH development-related topics is allowed and soft-enforced. Offtopic chains longer than 5 posts will be moved to more appropriate channels or deleted in worst cases. Repeated offenders, that do this despite being warned not to (3 times rule), will be temporarily muted or banned for 3-7 days so they have time to think deeply on their improper behavior.

7) High-effort, deep-thinking, open state of mind and "low noise"/"high signal" actions are suggested and softly enforced in BCH development channels. Users of these channels are expected to actually address and think on arguments of other people, not just keep repeating their point of view ad infinitum, creating circular discussion patterns.

If for some reason debaters cannot come to any kind of conclusion in message chains longer than ~30 posts and/or the discussion has become a circular discussion, the thread will be moved to a more appropriate channel (initially that will be offtopic channel, a specialized channel might be created in the future for this case).

For newly registered/unknown people who have no prior reputation in the BCH ecosystem:

1) No inciting violence or murder. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be insta-banned.

2) No political discussion of any sort. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp-banned for 7-14 days.

3) No referral links; no spam, except if done as a part of some BCH development-related meme. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp-banned for 7-14 days.

4) No directly attacking of other people or using ad-hominem. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp-banned for 14-90 days.

5) No discussing of non-BCH coins, except with relation to BCH in some way. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be temp-banned for 7-14 days.

6) Only discussion of BCH development-related topics is allowed and soft-enforced. Offenses will be outright deleted, users committing them will be initially warned and if they do not improve over time, might be temp-banned for 3-7 days later.

7) High-effort, deep-thinking, open state of mind and "low noise"/"high signal" actions are suggested and softly enforced in BCH development channels. Threads with offenses will be moved to a more appropriate channel, users committing them will be initially warned and if they do not improve over time, might be temp-banned for 3-7 days later.
